Pres't speaking of the movements of the Gentiles at Washington said Joseph Smith's words are coming true, he said they will eat each other up like the Kilkenny cats. Pres. said he had applied to all the capitalists among the Saints to bring out Paper Machinery, but they have not, Pres't Young said he would try himself to bring out a Paper Mill, and he believed he could

Albert Carrington read some Extracts from a work entitled the "Seer" published by Orson Pratt. These extracts were discussed by Pres't Young & Bp D. H. Wells

Pres't Young there were many principles that the world were unworthy to receive; for they would only trample on it. If he had ever erred it was ~~in~~ giving ~~too~~ too much revelation; instead of not giving enough. The Lord designed keeping those in ignorance who would not seek unto him; and would impart Knowledge to those who kept his commandments;

Pres. Young addressed the third Quorum of Seventies; most of his remarks were confined to the subject of drunkenness he regretted very much its prevalence. Pres remarked it was not the drink that influenced men to wicked actions, but the drink weakened the body so that Evil Spirits had power over it
