

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

Elmwood Collars are the best imitation of linen ever made. They fit better, wear longer, and look nicer, than even linen itself.

UNWHOLESOME FOOD.—By the unnatural combination of different articles by ignorant persons for baking powders, (even if articles are pure) they render the food very indigestible, as the chemical action, when they enter the stomach, prevents their being digested. Of these mixtures it requires but a small quantity to make food very unwholesome. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the only powder prepared by the application of scientific principles, combining all the elements of a perfect powder, thus making it safe, economical and nutritious, and only to be equalled in purity and strength by his True Flavoring Extracts, with which every housekeeper should be supplied.

HUMAN HAIR.—Hair cleaned, Combed straightened and made up cheap, at the Standard Hair Store.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is very strongly recommended by the Medical Faculty and is largely prescribed among their Female Patients. It is worthy of all confidence, as may be seen from the following testimonials:

De G. B. Chapman, Plattsburgh, N.Y., writes: "I have under treatment a lady, who, for the past seven years has been afflicted, and, after trying several physicians without receiving benefit, is gaining rapidly on your favorite prescription."

De R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "I have no words to express my gratitude to you for your advice and assistance in my case. There is not one who has used your medicines since they have been brought here, but that can say with me they have been greatly benefited. Since I have been so helped by its use, six or seven around me left off all doctors and other medicines, and now use it in their families, after being cured of the same disease as mine. You do not know what a wonder it created in our city, by its restorative power. I wrote you about, for she had been under the care of three of our best doctors, but could not sit up but for a few minutes at one time. I begged her to try your medicines, and before she had used half the bottles she could go all around the yard, and has now just come home from a visit five miles away."

CHAMBER'S ENCYCLOPEDIA.—Messrs. J. B. Lippincott & Co., of Philadelphia, announce that, by a recent purchase, they have become the sole proprietors of the American Edition of "Chamber's Encyclopedia," and are thereby enabled to offer the work at much lower rates than hitherto. In the course of its recent thorough revision, the American edition was edited with the special view of supplying the wants of American readers. It also possesses a special attraction in containing a series of over seventy-five full-page engravings not contained in any other edition. d50

IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.—It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and most pleasant to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making Eastern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kanawha Line and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets by the Old Pioneer Route—

The Chicago and North-Western. You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Mountain, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb., or to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago. d54

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, April 12, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

THERMOMETER 54 degrees F in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Fine, breezy.

There are messages at the Western Union Telegraph Office for John A. Frye and John F. Miller.

William Arnitzga.—There is a letter at this office for that gentleman, which he can obtain by calling for.

Sunday Liquor Selling.—The proprietor of the Head Quarters saloon was fined $50 this morning, by Justice Pyper, for selling liquor on Sunday.

Returned Missionary.—This morning we received a call from Elder William Geddes, of Plain City, who returned at the beginning of the present month on a mission to Australia. He left home in October, 1873, and consequently was absent about a year and a half. In going to his field of labor he traveled eastward, visited and spent six weeks in Scotland, calling on his relatives and travelling in the various branches of the Church. He also spent a couple of weeks in London.

Elder Geddes' labours in Australia were principally confined to Victoria, New South Wales, and Tasmania. In Hobart Town, of the latter colony, he raised a small branch of the Church, and among those baptized was the wife of the brother to the mayor. The gospel, so far as Elder Geddes could learn, was introduced there for the first time by himself. He never saw a more intense interest manifested among any people regarding the truth than there is there, reminding him of the spirit of inquiry exhibited in his native country, Scotland, about twenty-five years ago.

How to Kill It.—In answer to an inquiry through the News regarding the best method of killing lucern, a gentleman called this morning and informed us that he had discovered that by chopping the heads off in the Fall the roots partially rotted by Spring, and could then be taken out of the ground. Another suggestion of his was to give it no water and it would die for want of it, but that would be a tedious plan, and one that could only succeed on dry bench land.

Mr. James H. Van Etta also called and gave us some ideas on the subject, which appear reasonable and feasible. He states that excessive pasturing will kill lucern; and another and most effective method was to plow four inches deep, with a sharp plow, to cut the roots, then harrow several times, bringing the roots to the surface. We should imagine this plowing should be done in the height of Summer, and thus make a Summer fallow on the ground.

"T. L. P." handed in the following this morning: "Of course it can be killed; let the inquirer take his lucern to the 20th Ward North Bench, and it will die of thirst."

Civil Rights.—From a gentleman just returned from the East, we learned of the following incident which occurred a few days ago in Kerl Co., Mo., which strikingly illustrates how the Civil Rights Bill, recently passed by Congress, is regarded in that section of the Union:

"A gentleman was eating dinner in an hotel in one of the principal towns in Kerl Co., and while doing so two negroes entered, sat down, one on each side of the same table, and commenced eating. The gentleman informed the proprietor of the hotel that he should prefer having his dinner without company, which called forth an insolent remark from the negroes to the effect that if he objected to eating at the same table with them he would wait until they had got through. Without replying, verbally, to this insult the gentleman left the table, and went out, but returned in a few minutes with a double barrelled shot gun, with which he shot both the negroes dead. Our informant added, that from this circumstance and observations made while he was in Missouri, he is satisfied there is a good deal of an insidious hostility between rival parties in that State."

Returned.—Mrs. Romania B. Pratt arrived home on Saturday evening, from New York city, where she has been attending for the last fourteen months the Free Medical College for Women, and been in close attendance at the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary.

Dental College and Infirmary.—Dr. W. H. H. Sharp has established in this city a dental college and infirmary, where patients will be treated at a low cost. This will present an opportunity for those desiring to become initiated in the mysteries of dentistry to do so. The students are required to go through a two years' course.

The New Chief Justice.—The Chief Justice of Utah, Hon. David P. Lowe, arrived in this city on Saturday night, and went to the Walker House. He appeared in the District Court room this morning, and was introduced to a number of the members of the Salt Lake bar, after which he occupied a seat on the bench with Associate Justice Emerson.

Lost or Stolen Horses.—The following was received this morning: "CORINNE, April 12. Chief of Police Burt, Salt Lake. About fifty horses, mostly work animals, are here, claimed to be from Southern Utah, supposed to be stolen. If you know of any stolen sets or brands."

"D. D. RYAN, City Marshal."

Parties whose horses are missing and who suppose them to be in the band alluded to in the dispatch should immediately forward a description of brands, &c., to Captain Burt, or to Sheriff S. W. Taylor, of this county, that they may be sent to Marshal Ryan with as little delay as possible.

A Visit to John Whitmer.

Elder Joshua Davis, of Provo, called at this office a few days since, having just returned from a mission in the east, upon which he left last December. He went to Missouri and visited and labored in Caldwell, Clay, Ray, Davis and several other counties which were wholly or partially settled by Latter-day Saints in the early history of the Church. Elder Davis says that the past winter has been the coldest known in that region within the memory of the oldest inhabitant; and that owing to drought and the ravages of the chinch bug the last two seasons, many of the people are bordering on starvation; the farmers in numerous instances are also without seed grain and potatoes, and teams, having lost their stock through the intense cold.

On the 21st of last month, March, Elder Davis visited Mr. John Whitmer, at Far West, formerly a member of the Church and one of the eight witnesses whose names are attached to the Book of Mormon. Mr. Davis stayed with Mr. Whitmer one night and part of two days. During the visit the two gentlemen spent most of their time in conversing about Mormonism, in the course of which Mr. Whitmer, with uplifted hand, declared—"I, with my own eyes, saw the plates from which the Book of Mormon was translated, and I also saw an angel who witnessed to the truth of the Book of Mormon. Mr. Whitmer also affirmed that Brigham Young was carrying out the very platform established by Joseph Smith while he was living. He inquired if the Indians were being baptized by the "Mormons" in Utah, and seemed to be pleased on learning that numbers of them had come forward of their own accord and demanded baptism at the hands of the elders. He also told Mr. Davis that his brother David, one of the three witnesses to the Book of Mormon, was residing at Richmond keeping a tavern, and that Oliver Cowdery, another of the three witnesses to the Book of Mormon, died at Richmond, Mo., in 1840. He was agreeably surprised to hear that Martin Harris, another of the three witnesses to the Book of Mormon, was living in Cache county, Utah, at the advanced age of ninety years and well. Mr. Whitmer inquired if the Prophet Joseph Smith ever gave a revelation on the subject of celestial marriage, and, on receiving an answer in the affirmative, requested Mr. Davis to send him a copy of it, for he would like to read it, as he had heard it denied that a revelation on that subject had ever been given. In closing their interview, Mr. Whitmer expressed a great desire to have news from Utah, but Mr. Davis told him that, instead of relying upon that, it would be better for him and his brother David to pay the Territory a visit during the coming summer.

The Messrs. David and John Whitmer left the church in 1838 in consequence of the terrible persecution of the Saints and their expulsion from the State of Missouri. In consequence of their action in this respect they were permitted by the mob to remain in the State and to retain possession of their property, as thousands of others might have done had they abandoned their faith. Since that time Mr. John Whitmer has become an extensive landed proprietor, and now resides upon this property in the City of Far West, and we understand that he has never failed to bear testimony to the validity of the Book of Mormon whenever opportunity has presented.

The British Mission.—The following are from the Millennium Star, March 16—

"Bristol, March 8.—I have been traveling through portions of the Conference not visited by the Elders for some time, and found a number of Saints not very anxious to see me. I had meetings and baptized four persons. I am anxiously looking for the time when we can commence our out-door meetings. I find a spirit of inquiry among the people, and feel inspired to say if the Elders would stand valiant for the truth, and enter the field as the Elders did in years past, that there will be a great work accomplished this present year. We find the greatest opposition from the divines of the day, who use their endeavors to prevent us obtaining suitable meeting houses, or laying our principles before the people."

My health is good and spirits buoyant.—B. H. WATTS. "Elder David Meston writes from Glasgow: 'Brother Ingram is laboring in Ayrshire. By letter just received from Elder James Houston, a local Elder residing at Kilmarnock, we learn that he and brother Ingram have baptized nine persons, and that brother Ingram had organized a Branch there called the Ambank Branch.'"

Lecture.—We are requested to state that on Tuesday evening Dr. Russell will deliver a lecture in the 2nd Ward Meeting-house, under the auspices of the Young Men's Institute. Subject—Electricity and Anatomy. Lecture commences at 7 o'clock. All are invited.

Obsequies.—The funeral services of Elder George Baddley, in the 10th Ward School-house yesterday, were attended by a large number of people, who met on the occasion to testify their respect for the departed.

Elder Baddley was a man who enjoyed the character among those who knew him of being quiet and unobtrusive, soberminded and trustworthy. Those who knew him best have the greatest respect for him. He was an old member of the Church, and had proved faithful and staunch in advocating and defending the truths of the Gospel in other lands and climes.

Bad Runaway.—To-day, as Joshua Midgley, Jr., was driving a one-horse wagon along South Temple Street, between the Eagle Gate and this Office, the breeching strap broke, causing the vehicle to run against the horse. The wagon struck a tree and the horse freed himself from it. Mr. Midgley, who held stoutly to the lines, was thrown out upon the ground, receiving some injuries in his hands and on one side. Wm. Coombs, another young man who was in the wagon, was also thrown out violently, and received some internal injuries. The wagon was considerably smashed up.

Oh! all you good people who value your health, And think of your comfort as well as your wealth, Remember that now, just now, is the time To sweeten your houses with whitening or soap. The whitewashers are hanging to cutting and wall, And rooms look quite dismal as Winter or Fall, Unless they are washed and made clean and bright With Cooper's best mixture, or some other white. The crockets, too, which open so wide And make a fit place for germs to hide, Can all be well washed and made good and sound, So that such a nuisance can scarcely be found. Then talk no more of your rooms looking bad, When such a good chance is now to be had Of having your house brought out to view Very bright and alive, and free from dirt. Then give me a call, before it's too late, At the corner of West and South Temple Street. Charles Cooper, Whitener and Kalsomnier, Office, South Temple Street, one block west of the Tabernacle. d11
