on the 17th of February 1847, while sick on my pillow, I dreamed that I went to see Joseph. He sat with his feet on we want your society, and I don't like to be separated from you.

Rising from his chair, & looking at me with an earnest, & Expressive, & pleasing countenance, Joseph said in his usual way it is all right

(Brigham) I do not like to be away from you.

(Joseph) "It is all right; we cannot be together yet; ~~but~~ we shall be by & by, but you will have to do without me a while, & then we shall be together again."

[I then discovered there was a hard sail between us. Joseph stood by the window, & to the south west of him it was very light, I was in the twilight, and to the north of me it was very dark.]

[Brigham] ~~Bro~~ Joseph, the brethren you know ^{well} better than I do; you raised them up, and brought the Priesthood to us.
The brethren have a great anxiety to understand the Law of Adoption, or sealing principles, and if you have a word of counsel for me I should be glad to receive it.

Joseph stepped toward me, looking very earnestly & yet pleasantly, and said, "Tell the people to be humble & faithful & be sure to keep the Spirit of the Lord & it will lead them right. Be careful to not burn away the small stick, for it will teach you how to do & where to go. It will yield the fruits of the Kingdom. Tell the Brethren to keep their hearts open to conviction so that when the Holy Ghost comes to them their hearts will be ready to receive it. They can tell the Spirit of the Lord from all other Spirits: it will whisper peace & joy to their souls;

it will take sacrifice, hatred, strife, & all will flow from their hearts & their whole desires will be to do good, bring forth righteousness & build up the Kingdom of God.
Tell the brethren if they will follow the Spirit of the Lord they will go right. Be sure to tell the people to keep the Spirit of the Lord & if they will they will find themselves
