THE MORMON... NEW-YORK, SATURDAY, AUGUST 25, 1857... Origin, Object, and Destiny of Women...

The "Letter Day" has been ridiculed on account of their belief in the pre-existence of spirits, and in marrying for time and for all eternity...

For her benefit, and all others concerned, we will endeavor to answer the questions in brief, as we understand them...

Lady—whence comest thou? This or that? What art thou doing here? Whither art thou going? What is thy destiny, after having obeyed the truth...

Knowest thou not that operative ego, thy spirit, pure and holy, dwelt in thy Heavenly Father's bosom, and in his presence, and with thy mother, one of the Queens of Heaven, cradled by thy brother and sister spirits in the spirit world...

My husband, among other absurdities, repeats the old Bohemian Spaulding story, that the other "religions" were founded by him; then considered the most futile argument that could be produced, and often has been laughed at the folly of those who used such arguments to militate against Mormonism...

latter, their intelligence could illuminate your mind, and the heart in your soul, and you shall begin to understand the things you once knew, but which had gone from you; you shall then begin to understand and know the object of your creation...

My spirit filled with joy and thanksgiving rejoiced in thy Father, and rendered praise to his holy name, and the spirit world resounded in anthems of praise and rejoicing to the Father of Spirits...

Now, my dear daughter, I have returned, and along with thy guardian angel, thou camest on this terrestrial globe. The spirits then had chosen to come and labor with thee through their lineage, and your Head here left the spirit world some years previous...

Mr. William Nixon, sitting behind the counter smoking candy, and endeavoring to get some of the candy...

But we have taken farther notice of him and his book already than we intended to have taken, for 'tis reasonable or honest man, whether he be Jew or Gentile, but what man hold him in perfect contempt...
