Mon 10. In the forenoon with the Committee of the Post Office revising matter for the first Reader. In the P. M. at Bro. Cairns with Bro. E. Smith, arranging business of the Company. (Hudling Co.) till near dark.

Evening at the Post Office with the Regency who were examining our work by copying on the blackboard and testing the spelling.

Tues. 11. Was in the Endowment house today, the first of that business done since last fall. [redacted] and names, ages, &c., of those to be sealed. Presidency were there.

Took tea with Mary, Mary Ann, Sister Parker & their children, Sister Alex. Robbins, and Sister Heywood, at Bro. N. H. Felt's house, with his wives.

Evening with the Regency in the upper Rooms of the President's Office, examining the spelling of the New Books in the D. Alphabet.

A very serious conversation took place between Pres. B. Young and Orson Pratt upon doctrine.

O. P. was directly opposed to the Pres. views and very fully expressed his entire disbelief in them after being told by the President that things were so and so in the name of the Lord.

He was firm in the position that the Pres. word in the name of the Lord, was not the word of the Lord to him. The Pres. did not believe that Orson would ever be adam, to learn by experience the facts discussed, but every other person in the room would if they lived faithful.

J. M. Grant, Ananias Lyman, W. Woodruff, Albert Carrington, Elias Smith, & Nolt & Campbell also were present.
