

PITSBURG MORNING CHRONICLE July 29, 1842

July 28.

JUSTICE.

JEDEDIA SYLVEST WARREN

Dr. R. A. Wilson.

From W. Prescott,

This is to certify that from a sudden attack of 12 or 14 days continuance my recovery is wholly as of Dr. Wilson's Tonic Cathartic Pills, they being used. This public acknowledgment with gratitude to the prescriber among the earliest acts since

Memphis, February 15

From C. E. Reichardt M.D.

Dr. R. A. Wilson—Formerly had an agency to recommend of them, several boxes to Z. C. Alford Sheriff of this county, & his wife had taken them & he with very excellent success. Bown, clerk of the Court he informed me, with good success a Mrs. Grier, wife of Madison county, with a head-ache. I afterwards saw Mr. Grier, stating that he had cured his wife with any medicine that I could give him. I order him to take Dr. Wilson's pills, & he cured his head-ache, and ordered me to order more. Respectfully, C.

From Rev. D

This is to certify that I have known a number of respectable persons in this town and county, who have cured their ailments by Dr. R. A. Wilson's Pills for the cure of the various cases where I have seen them. They have given satisfaction in every case. A useful and efficacious medicine.

Memphis, Shelby county, Tenn. Jan 1842

The above Pills prepared by Dr. R. A. Wilson, and sold retail, at his dwelling in Marbury.

LADIES SHOES No. 8 Fifth street, one d

BENNETT'S AFFIDAVIT.—We know not whether Gen. John C. Bennett is worthy of belief, as he swore, while in Nauvoo, that Joe Smith had never taught him anything contrary to strict morality and virtue; in justice to the General, however, we publish his last affidavit, although it and his other publications would, under ordinary circumstances, be excluded from our columns; but when we see a base imposture, under the name of religion, gaining converts even in our own city—some from our own churches, it is time for the press to speak out, and direct its voice in tones of thunder against the vile hypocrisy, blasphemy, and shocking immorality of these reverend knaves, whose insidious wiles have caused the ruin of many a female, who has joined their church from a mistaken belief in the purity of their religion. The following is Gen. Bennett's last affidavit:

State of Illinois, }
Hancock County. } ss.

Personally appeared before me, S. Marshall, a Justice of the Peace in and for said county, John C. Bennett, who being duly sworn, according to law, deposes and saith—that the affidavit taken before Esq. Wells on the 17th of May, and the statement before the City Council of Nauvoo on the 19th, as published in the Wasp of the 25th of June, 1842, are false, and were taken under duress, as stated in this letter—that he has seen Joseph Smith in bed with Mrs. —, Mrs. —, and that he has seen him in the act of cohabitation with Mrs. —, and Mrs. —, all four of whom he seduced by telling them that the Lord had granted the blessing of Jacob, and that there was no sin in it—that he told him that Bates Noble married him to —, and that Brigham Young married him to —, that he had free access to Mrs. —, Mrs. —, Mrs. —, and various others, whose husbands he had sent off preaching, and not now necessary to mention—and further this deponent saith not.

JOHN C. BENNETT.

Sworn to and subscribed this 2d day of July, 1842.

SAMUEL MARSHALL, J. P. [seal.]